

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Assembly member for parallel flat tools. Untapped openings pass through the tools. The assembly member includes a cylindrical unit with a rotation axis, against which unit are arranged at least two wings enabling to solidify and to tighten the flat tools through the openings by means of rotation of less than 360° of the assembly member around its rotation axis, without adding any substance nor adhesive element or another mechanical fastening piece.